A truly memorable trophy is hard to win. Footwear, luggage, base layers, calls, clothing, of course, the most important thing is shotgun and optics.

1. Jacket & Hunting Boots

In most cases, the color of your hunting clothes from hats to boots including your backpack should be green, brown, khaki, olive, or neutral. A few large garbage bags can be useful to put your dirty or damp clothing or boots in to protect your other belongings and suitcase.

2. Cleaning Kit & Shooting Stick / Bipod

The environment in the field is very complicated. An experienced hunter can take advantage of the better visibility offered by those other shooting positions by using shooting sticks.

3. Reliable Optics

Binoculars, rangefinder, riflescopes and spotting scope.

If you can, take all of them.

The next step, however, is the critical one: choosing which whitetail deer for your hunting.
